Press reports available in Washington quote Wagner speaking before

~~EXE~~

the Brooklyn Division of the National Jewish Fund Sunday Night: QUOTE

There appears to be two visits by foreign rulers that may begin here.

One of these is the dictator of Yugoslavia. We don't want him in New York because he's a Communist and because he's anti-religious. As far as we're concerned, he'll get no consideration here. And the same goes for Saud, and double, too. I can tell you the government in Washington never consulted me about these visits. I'm for what our people stand for. I don't care whether it's diplomatic or not. ~~UNQUOTE~~ UNQUOTE

In a press conference today Wagner said his remarks had been QUOTE off the cuff UNQUOTE At the end of his conference he said of King Saud: QUOTE He's a fellow that says slavery is legal, that in the Air Froce you can't have any Jewish boys, and that a Catholic priest can't say mass, that you've got to turn to the East UNQUOTE

White here has been answering questions with QUOTE no comment UNQUOTE
